DETAILED ACTION

Reasons for Allowance

1. The claims has been amended as follows:

Replace “flanking a first target sequence” in step b) of claim 12 with --- comprising a first target sequence---.

Replace “flanking a second target sequence” in step f) of claim 12 with --- comprising a second target sequence---.

Replace “said first target nucleic acid sequence” in step d) of claim 12 with --- comprising said first target sequence---.

Replace “said second target nucleic acid sequence” in step g) of claim 12 with --- comprising said second target sequence---.

Above amendments on steps d) and g) are used to correct previous errors on the office action mailed on November 3, 2004.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1 and 3-37 are allowable in light of the applicant's amendments filed on September 28, 2004 and the examiner's amendments. The closest prior art in the record are Khanna et al., (Oncogene, 18, 27-38, 1999), Monforte et al., (US Patent No. 5,830,655, published on November 3, 1998), Zhang et al., (US Patent No. 5,876,924, published on March 2, 1999), Uematsu et al., (US Patent No. 6,225,064 B1, filed on October 7, 1999), Chee et al., (US Patent No. 6,355,431 B1, filed on March 2000, priority date: April 20, 1999), and Barany et al., (US Patent No. 6,027,889, filed on May 28, 1997, priority date: May 29, 1996). The reference of Khanna et al., does not teach performing a first analysis of said at least 10 different target nucleic acids and performing a second analysis of said at least 10 different target nucleic acids recited in claim 1 filed on September 28, 2004. The combination of Khanna et al., with other references in the record can not used to reject claims 12-18 and 21-37 since Khanna et al., do not teach steps f) and g) of claim 12, step c) of claim 16, and analysis of at least 10-100 different target nucleic acids in a single reaction recited in claims 21-23. These prior art either alone or in combination with the other art in the record does not teach or reasonably suggest methods which comprise all of the limitations recited in claims 1, 12, and 16.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
